SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

Major Narong Worabut, intimate Pibul protege who recently returned from the United States where he accompanied James Scott, former U.S. Commercial Attache in Bangkok, on a mission for the Siamese Government, told Nguyen-Duc-Quy that from the talks he had with U.S. officials in Washington the situation looked much brighter for Viet Nam. He added that the Vietnamese should send a delegation to the United States as soon as possible and that the Siamese would willingly resume supplying the Viets with arms, an operation that would be facilitated by the fact that the Siamese would be able to replenish the supplies on the pretext that they were needed by the Siamese Army.
